Mr Stanley visited the Houses of Parliament last Wednesday to collect the International Schools Award from Secretary of State for Education, the Rt. Hon. Damian Hinds. Mr Hinds, who is also the member of Parliament for East Hants gave a speech in which he singled out Liss Junior School for the learning we share with our twinned school in Uganda, Kafuro Primary School. This is the second time Liss Junior School has gained this prestigious award and the British Council feedback was very positive:

"... You have a thriving partnership with a school in Uganda and you have been very imaginative in the ways that you have embedded aspects of the partnership into the curriculum. It is clear that you are using the collaborative work to challenge stereotypes that exist in both communities and the pupils in both schools will move closer to becoming citizens as an outcome. You have used a local schools network to disseminate your international work and it is pleasing that another school has decided to follow your international route. As your international journey progresses it would be good to see the activities broaden to include other regions of the world. Your partnership is exemplary in how you have embedded it within your curriculum and it is hoped that this will continue. Well done and keep up the excellent work."
